WHAT ARE COLLEGES LOOKING AT?

Important Factors:

- Strength of curriculum (IB, AP, Honors)
- Grade Point Average (GPA) and class rank (percentile)
- College Entrance Examination Scores (ACT or SAT)
- Activities student is involved in

If the College Requires them:

- Essays
- Recommendation Letters (teacher and counselor)
- Resume (leadership, community service, extracurricular, talents, etc.)
- Interviews

PICKING A COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY

FACTORS TO CONSIDER:

- Four-year, two-year, or vocational?
- Location: close to home or far away? City life or college town?
- Size: Under 3,000 students or over 30,000 students?
- Coed or single sex?
- Private or public institutions?
- What programs are offered?
- What sports or extracurricular activities are available?
- Cost? Do not exclude any choices because of high cost (Expensive schools often offer more aid)
 - ALWAYS CHECK THE NET PRICE CALCULATOR.

WHAT YOUR LIST SHOULD LOOK LIKE

At least 2 reach schools
At least 4 match schools
At least 2 REAL safety schools

Research the college's admission data on SCOIR or look at the college's website for the Common Data Set:

- most important facts and figures about a college that allows you to easily look up certain pieces of information, helps you compare colleges, and even provides demographic breakdowns of admissions and enrollment statistics.

POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION

1. College or University (FIU, Harvard, UM)

2. Community College (MDC, Santa Fe)

3. Vocational/Technical (Robert Morgan, Lindsay Hopkins)

4. Military (Army, Navy, Marines)

POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION

Community College: Why pick MDC over other colleges?
Better financially, MDC Honors

Vocational/Technical: quick path into the work force

Military: apply EARLY and speak to Major Chavez (JROTC)

COMMUNITY/ STATE COLLEGES IN FLORIDA

- Letters of recommendation from teachers/counselors
- Essay/supplemental essay(s) and short answers

COMMON APPLICATION ERRORS

- Dishonesty: Never lie on an application. This includes overstating grades, exaggerating about participation in activities, or plagiarizing an essay. Remember, they will get your transcript!
- Getting the details wrong: Since you may use some of the same essays and responses for more than one school, go over each draft carefully, making sure to insert the correct names and details. Then put the applications away for at least a day and go back over them with a fresh eye.
- Sloppy or lazy preparation: All applications are not the same. Follow the instructions for each college's application exactly. Have someone you trust proofread your work and never rely on spell-check.
